And afterwards : party, dancing and get-together with the artistic director, all the musicians and the festival organizers...

The party and all meetings and discussions with the musicians before and after all the concerts will take place in the festival bar 'Chez Josquin' in the historic wine cellar of Talant - barely one hundred meters from the church. In addition to cold and hot drinks, the bar will offer a choice of Burgundian wines and Belgian beers, as well as serving a selection of dishes of the day, sandwiches, pastries...

All concerts take place in the church of Talant.
